

We're making a splash by reading this summer.
Join us for No Book Left Unread!

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
June 2010		1  No Book Left Unread: Make a Summer READ @ Your Library NBLU begins today! So start reading!	2 WHAT books do you plan to read for No Books Left Unread? Have you made a list?	3 WHERE IN THE WORLD? If you are on Bathhouse Row, what national park are you visiting?	4 It's Friday! Celebrate by reading your book tonight for 2000 seconds!	5 World Environment Day Gather your friends and hold a Trash-a-thon to clean up an area in your town or your neighborhood.
6 It's Iced Tea Month!  Try a new flavor of iced tea. How about peach or strawberry?	7 Are you still reading your book? How many pages and minutes have you read this month?	8 GEOGRAPHY What is the southernmost state in the United States?	9 Happy Birthday, Donald Duck! Read a comic book about Donald's adventures and misadventures.	10 DESIGN A postcard from a vacation spot. Use the letter area to write a note encouraging a friend to read your favorite book. Mail the card.	11 PROTECT your eyes in the sunshine. It's Child Vision Awareness Month and you still qualify!	12 DANCE to songs about cars like Little Deuce Coup , Little GTO , All I Wanted Was a Car , Greased Lightning .
13 LAZY SUNDAY  Spend today in your most comfortable clothes. Read your newspaper and then read your book. Remember to enter it on your reading log for No Book Left Unread.	14 Flag Day  Which President proclaimed a national flag day? Which President signed the act making June 14 Flag Day?	15 TRIVIA TIME! Which mosquito bites more frequently – male or female?	16 Fudge Day! Make some fudge today and enjoy it while you read your book.	17 NO television tonight. Play games and read with your family. 	18 Sally Ride, 1st American woman in space. Read a biography of this space pioneer.	19 First Baseball game played on this date in 1846. Watch the Braves vs. the Royals. Make a chart of the game stats.
20 Father's Day Write a poem for your dad or someone special to give him today.	21 Wimbledon Tennis Tournament begins today. Read about the history of lawn tennis.	22 Doughnuts Invented, 1847 What's your favorite kind? Can you write a story about making doughnuts?	23 KEEP a list of all the times you use math during a typical day.	24 RECORD How much time you spend watching TV in a week. Make sure you read at least that same amount of time!	25 Great Outdoors Month! Take your book; find a shady spot; read for 25 minutes today.	26 The barcode was invented on this date in 1974. How many barcodes do you use on a daily basis?
27 Anniversary of Happy Birthday to You! Did you know this song is copyrighted? Does that explain why places like Outback have their own happy birthday song?	28 Create a digital poem. Use Summer Vacation. Write an acrostic poem now illustrate it in MovieMaker or PowerPoint. Ex: http://www.unf.edu/~nsta	29 WRITE It's Library Advocacy Day so write a letter to your U.S. Senator telling him how important school libraries are.	30  What does misconstrue mean?

Child Vision Awareness Month
Great Outdoors Month
National Iced Tea Month
National Smile Month
Student Safety Month
National Candy Month

No Book Left Unread begins June 1: Read every day. Visit your library. Take a book with you wherever you go. Let others see how much fun it is to read. Be sure you record how much you read!